

SOCIETY

TODAY'S EVENTS.

Mrs. Windsor V. Rice entertains today at the Alta club with a luncheon given in compliment to Mrs. Edwin F. Holmes and Mrs. George P. Holman.

The Misses Gladys and Marguerite Richmond will entertain today at their home in East Second and South street, at bridge, in honor of Miss Nellie Calvin of San Francisco.

Mrs. Isadore Mayer and Mrs. Charles C. Crismon will be the hostesses this afternoon at the first in a series of bridge teas, at their home on East First North street.

The Friday afternoon card club will meet this afternoon with Mrs. W. M. Bransford.

Miss Marian Love and Miss Vera De Vol will give a Halloween party this evening at the home of the former on Third avenue.

The regular meeting of the Ladies' Literary club will be held this afternoon in the club house. The subject of the afternoon is "American Humors." Papers will be given by Mrs. John Cain, Mrs. Charles G. Pimmmer, Mrs. William H. Bantz, Mrs. Howard S. Stowe, Mrs. John Reed and Judge C. C. Goodwin. The musical numbers, consisting of instrumental and vocal solos, will be given by Miss Sybella W. Clayton and Miss Mary H. Kimball.

In addition to the above program Mr. Buchanan, who is a distinguished visitor in the city, will give several recitations. The program will begin at 2 o'clock sharp.

To meet Mrs. Edward Welles Delano, one of the brides of the summer, Mrs. John W. Delano received a large number of friends yesterday afternoon in her apartments in the Bransford at a reception, followed by tea.

Mrs. Delano and the guest of honor welcomed the guests in the reception rooms, which were adorned with tall vases of beautiful white chrysanthemums, and assisting in entertaining were Mrs. Thomas Weir, Mrs. A. H. Boxrud, Mrs. John E. Dooly, Mrs. A. Richter and Mrs. F. A. Vincent. The

Sanitation in the Bathroom

In the bathroom the closet requires constant attention and frequent, thorough scrubbing. Rinse the seat and flush freely. Put into the bowl of the closet a handful of Gold Dust washing powder and let the solution stand for some time. Then take an old broom and scrub all the parts that can be reached, especially into the traps as far as possible. Flush again, and add more of the washing powder and wash under the flushing rim and all parts inside and out. Stains of iron from the water if not removed by the scouring, may be removed with a few drops of hydrochloric acid.

ladies' orchestra, under the direction of Miss Helen Hartley rendered a delightful musical program during the afternoon.

Tea was served in an adjoining suite of rooms, where, presiding at the tea and coffee urns, were Mrs. E. A. Wall, Mrs. J. C. Landenberger, Mrs. Rose M. Breeden and Mrs. George D. Keyser, with Mrs. William C. Druhl and Miss Helen Boxrud assisting.

A crystal bowl of Madam Chatney roses formed the central decoration of the tea table, which was lighted by pink shaded lights in artistic effect.

Between the hours of 3 and 5 nearly two hundred were present and the occasion was altogether one of the most pleasant of the season's society functions.

For the first time since the return of the hostess from an extended European trip, the George P. Holman home in East South Temple street was thrown open yesterday on the occasion of an afternoon tea, when Mrs. Holman received a hundred or more of her friends between the hours of 3 and 5. Mrs. Holman was assisted in receiving her guests by Mrs. M. S. Woodward and Mrs. J. P. McGeath in the drawing room, where the decorations were in large mauve and white chrysanthemums, which flowers were also used in the library and reception hall.

At the tea table, which was graced with a cut glass bowl of American Beauty roses for the centerpiece, Mrs. Windsor V. Rice, Mrs. Edwin F. Holmes, Mrs. E. B. Pfoutz and Mrs. William F. Bradley poured, assisted by Mrs. J. M. Bidwell, Mrs. J. Walcott Thompson, the Misses Hanauer and Miss Rookledge.

Miss Bryan Houston was the young hostess yesterday afternoon at a delightful Halloween bridge tea given in the Houston apartments in the Bransford.

The rooms were very attractive in the soft glow of yellow lights and golden flowers, yellow dahlias being seen in the parlors and hall. The tea table in the dining room was covered by a clumsy lace cloth over yellow and lighted by candles shaded in pumpkins. A large brown basket with a yellow bow on the handle and filled with yellow chrysanthemums, occupied the center of the table, with four lighted pumpkins at the corners. Assisting in the dining room were the Misses Alice Wall, Virginia Beatty, Isabelle Schiffer, Gladys McConaughy and Mary Wall.

Five tables of the game were played with a dozen young friends coming in for tea. The prizes awarded at the tables were copies of the book, "The Ghosts I Have Met."

Little Helen Katherine Broughall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Broughall, celebrated her seventh birthday, and the eighth birthday of her friend Evelyn Daly Brown.

Thursday afternoon, with an elaborate children's party, at the home of her parents on First avenue.

The hostess and guest of honor were assisted in receiving by little Enid Wall, daughter of Colonel and Mrs. E. A. Wall. Both were attired in dainty white lace frocks, with bright ribbons, making a most attractive picture, standing in the drawing room, which was decorated in pink and white carnations. The guests were received at the door by Misses Mary Neel and Katherine Keith prettily gowned in white.

The Misses Olive Wall, Naomi Hoffman and Gertrude Thomas assisted the hostess, having charge of the games played in the library, which were entered into enthusiastically by

Makes a Pint of Finest Cough Syrup

Cheap and Effective, Too.

The most effective and economical cough syrup can be made at home by any one, and in this day of high prices for foodstuffs and medicines, a family can appreciate a saving even on a necessity like cough syrup.

First, obtain of any well-stocked drugstore 2 ounces of essence Menthol-laxene. Empty it into a pint bottle. Then take a pint of granulated sugar, add a half pint of boiling water, put on fire and let come to a boil. Cool and pour in bottle. Shake the mixture well and take a teaspoonful every hour or two until cough is broken up; then take whenever necessary. The children less according to age.

This mixture will break up a cold and cure a cough much more rapidly than any ordinary mixture, because it is not constipating, but laxative in action when taken in 10 doses are taken daily. If your druggist does not have menthol-laxene, he can obtain it from the wholesale firm. Try this splendid recipe and you will never want anything better.

the tots, prizes being awarded to the winners.

The dining room, in pink and white, was a picture, when the girls numbering thirty, were seated at one long table, an immense birthday cake gracing the center, with its seven pink candles representing the number of years the little hostess has attained. The children had great fun seeking the dimes scattered through the cake. Long streamers of pink tulle reached from the chandelier to the four corners of the table. Assisting in the dining room were Marian Tuttle and Maud Bratt.

The happy little guests were Evelyn and Margaret Brown, Olive and Enid Wall, Helen Kearns, Elizabeth Ritchie, Jane Maas, Elizabeth Colladay, Dorothy and Muriel Gayford, Mildred and Lucille McClain, Gertrude Thomas, Naomi Hoffman, Rowena Allison, Frances Lewis, Ruth Spiker, Grace Darling, Mary Hunziker, Martha Price, Maivis and Lois Farrell, Helen Marcy, Mary Neel, Katherine Keith, Mary Hopkins, Marian Tuttle, Maud Bratt, Norma Kent.

Mrs. Broughall was assisted by Mrs. J. J. Daly, Mrs. Edwin F. Holmes, Mrs. Thomas Kearns, Mrs. James Ivers, Mrs. Mark Lillard and Mrs. T. Roy Brown.

Unity hall was the scene of a delightful Halloween dancing party last evening, when the hostesses were the members of the Ladies' guild of St. Paul's church. Many attractive character costumes were worn, and games furthering the spirit of the season were enjoyed. The refreshments were also carried out as far as possible in keeping with the season.

An interesting event of last evening took place at the home of Miss Lydia Wells on South Eighth East street, when the children and descendants of the late Daniel H. Wells assembled to celebrate the anniversary of his birthday as is their annual custom. Nearly a hundred were present, and a feature of the occasion was that members of the family dressed in old-fashioned and historical costumes appeared in little sketches and plays.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Vermillion entertained Tuesday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Raymer and daughter of Chicago, Ill. Miss Raymer is a talented musician and possessor of a beautiful voice. Mr. Raymer is a cousin of Mrs. Vermillion and Mrs. William Edwards. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. William Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Homer P. Edwards, Miss Lydia Davis, Miss Vermillion and Miss Margaret Vermillion.

At a meeting of the board of the Utah Congress of Mothers yesterday morning at the home of the president, Mrs. C. E. Allen, it was decided to help support a library in the Free Kindergarten rooms.

Beulah and Morgan White will entertain a number of their young friends at a Halloween party Monday at their home in Seventh East street.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Westminster church will hold a cake sale Saturday morning in Keith-O'Brien's store.

Mrs. Ellen Enberg will entertain her young friends Saturday evening with a Halloween party.

Mrs. Eliza K. Roy will return Sunday from an extended visit in the east, where she has divided her time between her sons, Edward Milton Roy in Darien, Conn., and Dr. St. Clair Roy in New York, and later with her sister, Mrs. J. A. Thatcher in Denver. Eugene B. Palmer left yesterday for Denver to accompany Mrs. Roy to her home in Salt Lake.

Miss Charlotte Holmes is expected shortly after a visit of several months in Los Angeles and vicinity.

Miss Gertrude Fligel will entertain this evening at cards.

Mrs. Claude W. Freed and sons, Mrs. George B. Dodge and daughter, and F. M. Wolf leave today for Denver to be present at the golden wedding anniversary of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Wolf of Denver, Colo.

Go Away From Home If You Would Be Appreciated

Is an old saying that applies to beers as well as to men.

In Chicago, beer made of Utah barley and called "Utah Brew," is widely advertised as their city's finest brew.

Utah Barley, even with eastern lake or river water makes a good beer, but Utah Barley and pure MOUNTAIN water makes something far better, namely,
